2. Please describe your past experience with interfaith cooperation activities. (Note, the curriculum is intended to be easily accessible to educators and students who are new to engaging religious diversity.)
3. In 200 words or less, please describe how you intend to use the curriculum in your work with students. Please list which activities in the curriculum you are most interested in using. (Note, to apply for a grant, you must commit to using at least 4 activities.)
4. In addition to a $500 stipend, you will also receive $500 to support a bridge-building project with your students. (See RFP for more details.) Please describe your initial ideas for what kind of project would best fit your context. (We recognize that you will develop this idea further with your students over the course of the grant term.)
5. How many students and other campus community members do you anticipate you will reach through the curriculum and through your bridge-building project?

6. Please enter your mailing address so that we can send you a check should you receive a grant.
